DISCUSSION

City Council adopted its most recent Rules of Procedure and Decorum with Resolution No. 2021-02 on January 19, 2021. The Rules of Procedure and Decorum clarify procedural rules for the conduct of City Council meetings in the following areas:

- General Laws
- Decorum
- Signs
- Photography / Film / Audio Recording
- Meeting Broadcasts
- Use of Audio-Visual Equipment
- City Council Chambers Capacity / Overflow Seating
- Regular Meetings
- Quorum
- Agenda
- Emergency Agenda Matters
- Invocation
- Presentations
- Addressing City Council
- Consent Calendar
- Motions
- Processing of Motions
- Voting
- Reconsideration
- Appeal
- Ordinances
- Resolutions
- Minutes.

Staff has prepared a draft resolution in redline format proposing the following amendments to reflect current practice and provide clarification:

Section 14: Changed language to reflect current practice and new technologies used to register public speakers.

Section 17: Changes language to leave pulling Consent Calendar items to the discretion of City Council.

Staff requests that City Council review the proposed Rules of Procedure and Decorum. Should City Council have no other amendments to the draft resolution, Staff recommends City Council adopt the draft resolution as presented. Should City Council have additional amendments, Staff will draft a new resolution, incorporating additional changes to the Rules of Procedure and Decorum as directed by City Council, for consideration and adoption at a future City Council meeting.
