DISCUSSION

City of Fullerton has representation on several advisory bodies and working groups that convene elected officials (and in some cases, members of the public) from many jurisdictions to address regional issues or require input from a City representative to discuss local issues outside of the direct authority of the City Council. The City Council annually reviews the City's representation on regional advisory bodies for expired, vacant and non-specific terms and ratifies appointments by formal action. The attached chart ("City of Fullerton Advisory Body Representation") shows the City's designated representatives and alternates, terms of office and other details for each of the regional advisory bodies with a Fullerton representative. City Council usually appoints a member of the City Council to serve on regional advisory bodies but does occasionally appoint a member of the public to serve, when allowable.

On January 29, 2019 City Council appointed Jan Flory to fill the vacant at-large City Council seat for a term expiring December 2020. Mayor Pro Tem Fitzgerald and Council Member Zahra requested that City Council review the regional advisory body appointments list to consider appointments for Council Member Flory.
